

SYMPHONY CONCERT LIKELY TO SELL OUT

March 17, 2012

Symphony of the Americas – Broadway Goes to the Movies

This second performance of the two performance Weston Symphony Series is likely to be a sell out like the first.

"Broadway Goes to the Movies" will be an orchestral journey spanning the continent, from New York to Hollywood! The Symphony of the Americas orchestra will perform beloved music of stage and screen. The audience is in for an extra special treat with a visual presentation matching the musical scores from such favorites as Chicago, Wicked, Evita, Star Wars, Grease, Harry Potter and even a touch of Disney magic thrown into the mix.

The performance, presented by the City of Weston and the Weston Philharmonic Society will be held at the Cypress Bay Theater at 8:00PM on March 17th.

Tickets are just $20 in advance or $30 at the door, available one hour prior to the show if available. Student tickets are available at a cost of $10 in advance or $15 at the door.
