WESTON WELCOMES TWO NEW CITY COMMISSIONERS

The Commission Chamber at City Hall was filled with well wishers on the evening of Monday, November 15, 2010 in anticipation of the swearing in of Weston's two new City Commissioners, Jim Norton (Seat 3) and Toby Feuer (Seat 4). Mayor Eric Hersh called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. and the Broward Sheriff's Office Honor Guard marched to the front of the dais to perform the official salute and then joined in the Pledge of Allegiance that was led by students from Sagemont Lower School.

Commissioner Feuer was administered the oath of office by her long-time friend Ms. Ann Zucker. Once sworn in she was congratulated with flowers from her son and took her place on the dais to deliver her acceptance speech.

Immediately following, Commissioner Norton was administered his oath of office by long-time friend, the Honorable Judge Jeffrey Levenson and congratulated by his wife, son and mother before taking his seat on the dais to deliver his acceptance speech.

Both Commissioner Feuer and Norton were elected without opposition at the close of qualifying in September and they will each serve a four-year term in accordance with the City Charter. Weston's next municipal election will take place in November 2012.
